Important Information

As we close out our school year and begin our summer camp I want to say, Thank you! Thank you to you our families for your continued support this year! It has been our great pleasure caring for your child and becoming part of the family. As we close out this last month of school please remember that we have Summer Camp starting June 3rd. This month we have a lot going on. We have Skyline Olympics, Preschool Promotion, and end of year assessments. Don't forget to take home your child's projects, work and extra personal belongings so they don't get lost in the end of the year clean up
