MAY 2023

A Peek at Our Month

For the month of May as our school session comes to an end. I would like to thank each of you in trusting us with your child and in helping you to educate them. We will be working with your student in reviewing what we have covered during this school year and in transitioning either to the Pre-K classroom or to kindergarten. We will continue to work on expressing ourselves through activities as we continue to work on the important concepts in language, math, science, social studies, creative art, physical health, and social and emotional growth.

If you are looking for some ideas in how to keep your preschool busy over the next few months, please check out Aha!Parenting.com. It has different topics and resources you might find interesting. Thank you and have a wonderful summer with your family 😊

If you ever need to reach out to the teachers, please do so via Brightwheel.
